

WHAT'S IN YOUR ATTIC?

OLGA is looking for materials that will help chronicle the history of the GLBT community in the Ozarks.

Suggested items include:

- Unpublished materials such as diaries, letters, or manuscripts
- Photographs
- Scrapbooks
- Organizational records, including minutes, bylaws, and correspondence
- Materials documenting:
 - GLBT concerts
 - GLBT sports events
 - GLBT political campaigns
- Audio/visual materials, such as videos of events or audio recordings of speeches
- Ephemeral items that help document the local GLBT community, including:
 - Flyers
 - Buttons
 - Invitations

Or share your story through our ongoing oral history project!

The Ozarks Lesbian and Gay Archives is housed in Special Collections and Archives, located in Missouri State University's Meyer Library.
